

The Medico-Legal Society of Queensland

Christmas Dinner

One-Armed Man Applauds Medical Staff

Guest Speaker, Trent Dalton, takes a wry look at the pitfalls of medico-legal reportage, an outsider's journey from mixoploidy to mixed metaphor.

Trent Dalton writes for Qweekend, The Courier-Mail's award-winning colour magazine. Dalton was named Feature Journalist of the Year at the 2008 News Awards. In 2009, he has been Highly Commended at the Walkley Awards, nominated for a United Nations Association of Australia Media Peace Award, nominated for five Queensland Media Awards and named a News Awards Feature Journalist of the Year finalist for the third year in a row. He has written for The Australian, The Daily Telegraph, Herald-Sun, Adelaide Advertiser, The Sunday Times, The Walkley Magazine and The Griffith Review. He has written several short film screenplays, including Silencer, which was named a finalist in the 2006 Tropfest short film festival and screened at the American Film Institute Film Festival. His latest short film, Glenn Owen Dodds, starring David Wenham, will be released in 2010. His first feature film screenplay is currently in development.
